Before me personally appeared Wilson T. Morton who being duly sworn according to law declares, that he saw Amzi C. Rodarmal among the troops commanded by Col. Moore, at Gonzales, or Seguin, in the Burnside opposition in the Year 1842. He further declares that said Amzi C. Rodarmal served as a musician in the regular Army of Texas in the company commanded by Captain Lockhart in the Year 1837. And that A. C. Rodarmal and S. M. Rodarmal passed as brothers, which they were according to the best of his knowledge and belief. and that the heirs of said A. C. Rodar-mal is justly entitled to receive his headright of land
